

When large companies like yours control the airwaves, our democracy is threatened. I intend to contact every advertiser I see on your station and air my dissatisfaction with your biased and partisan policies.

I will also work to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them.

Your attempt to pervert the democratic process will not go unnoticed, and we will never forget.

Thank you.